

APPLICATIONS OPEN!

EDUCATION JUSTICE AMBASSADORS FELLOWSHIP

A year-long programme that equips young people aged 15-25 with legal and advocacy skills to fight for education justice while building pathways to careers in law and social justice.

WHO CAN APPLY?

- You are 15-25 years old
- You are in Grade 9, 10 or 11
- You attend a no-fee school or an under-resourced school
- You live in KwaZulu-Natal, Gauteng, Western Cape, or Northern Cape
- You want to learn, grow, and make a difference

YOU DO NOT NEED

- High marks
- Legal knowledge
- Previous leadership experience

We want learners who are curious, committed, and ready to learn.

We strongly encourage young women, gender-diverse youth, learners with disabilities, and over-aged learners to apply.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

WHAT YOU WILL GET

- Practical experience working with lawyers and professionals
- Mentorship and career guidance
- Certificate and reference letter

THE PROGRAMME IS 100% FREE!

HOW TO APPLY (CHOOSE ANY ONE WAY)

All you have to do to apply is tell us why you want to be an Education Justice Ambassador! You can apply in any of these ways:

Call or give a missed call to EELC and we will call you back
064 303 6642

Send a WhatsApp voice note
064 303 6642

Send a short video (optional)
Tell us who you are and why you want to be an Ambassador

Write a letter
Write about why you want to join and send it to vuyolwethu@eelawcentre.org.za or send it to us on our WhatsApp number

APPLICATION DEADLINE

13 March 2026

Late applications may still be considered.

WHO RUNS THIS PROGRAMME?

The programme is run by the Equal Education Law Centre (EELC). It is supported by the Trevor Noah Foundation through the Khulani Nathi Innovation Fund.

EELC is a public-interest law organisation. We have worked for over 14 years with learners, parents, schools, and communities to fight for the right to fair, safe, and quality education. Our work includes giving legal advice, representing people in court, advocacy, research, and community-led legal work.

